OGDEN, JUNE 18, 1900.

PIDCOCK ASSAULT CASE.

Jury Renders a Verdict of Not Guilty After Five Hours' Deliberation.

Excursion to Salt Lake for Scandinavian Jubilee—Nearly Fatal Result of Careless Gun Play.

Saturday Judge Hart occupied the bench in the second district court and heard the case of the State vs. Ralph Pidcock, charged with assault with a deadly weapon (a wooden arm) upon the person of John Seifert. The evidence seemed to be somewhat conflicting as to the circumstances of the case. Seifert struck the contrary blow, while others told the contrary story. The case was delivered to the jury at about 1:30 p. m. and at 10:45 p. m. they brought in a verdict of not guilty. This case arose out of an alleged assault committed on Sept. 29, 1899, in Van der Vee saloon, where Pidcock was delivering mail.

CARELESS GUN PLAY.

Last evening, while William Thompson was loading his rifle in Hayes' shooting gallery on Twenty-fifth street, the gun was accidentally discharged, the ball taking an upward course through the thin board partition into George Langdon's cigar store, where George Langdon was standing, striking him on the right side of the head, inflicting a serious scalp wound. Had the ball been kept level, it would have hit the head. It was then placed upward and lodged underneath the scalp. The injured man was taken to Badon's drug store, and Dr. Rich extracted the ball. After the wound was dressed Langdon recovered sufficiently to walk home.

The excursion to Salt Lake yesterday over the O. S. L. and R. G. W. to the Scandinavian Jubilee drew a large crowd from Ogden. It is estimated that nearly 1,000 people went from this city to the capital.

OGDEN NEWS BRIEFS.

LOGAN.

B. Y. COLLEGE ALUMNI.

Banquet and Ball—Encomiums for Prest. Kerr.

Logan, Cache Co., June 16.—At the banquet given by the alumni association of the Brigham Young college on Friday evening, Bishop Preston spoke expressing the regret felt by the board in losing the services of President Kerr during the six years of his labors there between him and the board. The efficiency of the labors of President Kerr is manifest from the marked advancement made by the college during his administration. When the proposition had first been made for President Kerr to retire, the board had said emphatically that they could not let him go without him; but they desired patriotically to sacrifice for the welfare of the State whenever presented with the opportunity, and with this feeling they had consented to let him go. They hoped to be able to select a man for President who would maintain the institution upon the high standard it has attained. President Kerr has had the respect and hearty support of the board in his labors here, and they wish him full success in his new field of labor. He could speak for the members of the board, absent as well as present, in expressing their high appreciation of the efficient and successful labors of the retiring president.
